

Barn Owls on Roald Dahl Day!!

Barn Owls had a 'marvellous' time on Roald Dahl day last week. Despite having Miss Trunchbull as their teacher, they managed to create recipes for a new 'marvellous medicine'.

There were many amazing costumes including a visit from the Queen, Fantastic Mr Fox and George himself!

Thankfully no one was swung round by their pigtails, no one was sent to 'chokey' and there were no whizzbangers from the BFG!
